Develop and implement a tailored learning strategy in your organisation

Strategic and business alignment is at the beating heart of everything that top-performing L&D teams do.

Annual L&D Benchmark Report 2023: Part Two, Mind Tools for Business

An organisational learning strategy is your overarching approach to learning in your organisation; it is aligned with and supports business goals.

The result?

A compelling learning strategy created using an evidence-informed and human-centred design approach will be grounded in reality and ensures:

Employee engagement, performance and innovation increase

Investment in learning adds value to your business

People are motivated to learn and engage in learning

L&D is established as a critical business function

Learning is fully aligned to business goals

→ A six-month expert-guided process supported by a licensed L&D Strategy Builder™ toolkit

Building on the success of our acclaimed L&D Strategy Builder™, which has helped L&D leaders across sectors in organisations with workforces from 90 to over 62,000, the L&D Strategy Accelerator brings you the same excellence in a collaborative small group setting.

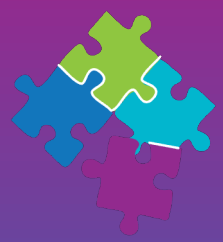

'The structure of the Strategy Builder process is great. The templates are valuable, but I can't imagine doing this without Learning Uncut's expert coaching.'

-Greg Woulfe, Global L&D Manager, Orica

How L&D Strategy Accelerator Works

90-minute weekly sessions over a six-month period to guide you to co-design your learning strategy and create a custom implementation plan. Each week one of the following types of sessions will be conducted:

Expert Coaching

Our experienced strategy experts will coach you to develop your learning strategy using the toolkit, and equip you with skills to create, implement and sustain your strategy.

Mastermind Sessions

Present work-in-progress on your research as you build the case for change, elements of your strategy as you design, and action plan as you prepare to implement. Get feedback from Accelerator peers and our experts.

Drop-in Sessions

Drop-in during the scheduled weekly slots for additional guidance on the process, tools, or your work-in-progress from one of our experts.

Strategy Toolkit

A licensed workbook and toolkit that contains tools and templates to help you co-create a bespoke organisational learning strategy. Each tool includes detailed guidance on how to use the templates and worked examples.
