Les Luck

After a long and engaging career in foreign policy, covering diverse issues and locations, I still get a kick out of helping others make their way in this field. I look forward to meeting you MOOCers.

As Executive Director at the Diplomatic Academy, I'm keen to combine my professional experience with a lifelong interest in education. Long-time DFAT, most recently Ambassador to Myanmar.

Before we move on to the international response and the investigations that followed, let's take a few minutes to hear from our colleague Nigel Stanier as he shares what it was like to be part of the initial crisis response team.

This is an additional video, hosted on YouTube.
